Rocky Mountain Reseller Conference

April 29-30, 2016

Double Tree Hotel and Conference Center

3203 Quebec Street, Denver, Colorado, 80207, USA

Some of the Benefits:

- 2 full days of exposure to 200+ resellers. You will be IN the ballroom (not out in the hallway) directly in front of your target audience. We have scheduled plenty of breaks to allow time for attendees to mingle and find out about your great products/services.
- Great speakers already lined up including Scott Voelker of The Amazing Seller podcast, Jeff Cohen of Seller Labs, Chris Wilkey of FBA Master, Andy Slamans from the Slamazon Bros, Kristin Ostrander of Mommy Income, Nate McCallister of The Listing Studio, Jason Wilkey of arbitrage411.com and Robert Rickey and Stephen Somers of Marketplace Superheroes!
- Opportunities to promote your brand on stage.
- Free advertising/backlink on the conference web site
- 2 complimentary tickets to conference
- Access to discounted room rates. (includes breakfast)
- Limited sponsorships available. In an effort to limit your competition, we will try to only allow (1) company from each category.
- As we know, a huge part of the conference is the networking that goes on outside the conference doors. We have fun events being planned for Thurs and Fri night to allow you even MORE chances to connect with attendees.

Sponsorship Tiers:

Tier 1 - $175

- Swag bag - you provide us with your brochure, business card, promotional item, etc (300 qty) and we insert them into a swag bag for every attendee.

Tier 2 - $500

- All items from Tier 1, plus a 6' table with AC power for you to man during the entire event.

Tier 3 - $850

- All the items from Tier 2, plus an opportunity to speak about your product or service for up to 10 minutes from the stage.
